In Places where there are Sub-Magistrates' Courts, it is, as pointed out by the I.G. of Prisons, undesirable to allow magisterial Lockups to be used for Confining prisoners in police custody At other Taluk Headquarters, however, where there are no Spl. Magistrs' Courts and therefore no magisterial prisoners or Convicts, there can be no objection to making the Lockups available for police prisoners if there are no separate police Lock-ups at these places or if at any time the existing police Lock-ups cannot accommodate all the prisoners in police custody.

The file will, if approved, be handed to the Genl. Misc. Branch, as the question raised is one on which orders have to issue from

P. Mahadevayya, Esq., B.A., B.L., Legal Remembrancer & Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Law Department.

I have the honor to forward herewith for the information of Government copies of the correspondence I had with the District Magistrate Tumkur, in the matter of providing accommodation to Police prisoners on the Megisterial Lock-up at Madhugiri and to state as follows:--

2. During my inspection of the Madhugiri Taluk Police Office on the 19th February 1929 it came to notice that the Police prisoners were being confiend in the lockup for which there is a separate building but that the District Magistrate had ordered that the Police prisoners should not be confined there. As there was no separate lock-up accommodation for Police prisoners, I requested the District Magistrate to continue to place at the disposal of the Police as usual two cells for the use of Police prisoners but the District Magistrate states that he could not do so as the Inspector General of Prisons has ordered that the practice of ~~continuing~~ confining Police prisoners in the Magisterial lock-ups is improper and should cease etc. During my inspection of the Jagalur Taluk Police office on the 31st January 1929 I noticed a similar disability and I have addressed the District Magistrate of the Chitaldrug District in the

3. In this connection, I wish to state that in several Taluk headquarters, the Police are put to much difficulty for want of lock-up accommodation for Police prisoners and are denied the use of the Magisterial lock-ups. As there are no stipendiary Magistrates in most of the Taluk headquarters and consequently not much demand on the Magisterial lock-ups I th the Police may be allowed to have the use of the Magisterial lock-up in places where no separate prison accommodation is provided for Police prisoners. This is actually in ~~vogue~~ Vogue in Taluk offices and I have noticed that in many Taluk Office buildings the lock-ups(four in number) are generally empty an some places the one or more rooms are used for lumber. The -- District Magistrate is the head of the Police as well as of t lock-ups in his District and as he has got the power of distr buting the prisoners according to local convenience, I reques that you will be so good as to obtain the orders of Governmen directing the District Magistrates to allot a cell or two for use of the Police prisoners in places where separate prison accommodation is not available for Police prisoners.
